QUEEN ELIZABETH NATIONAL GAMEPARK

Queen Elizabeth National Park is one of Uganda's most popular tourist destinations, annually receiving one of the highest number of visitors of any of the country's national parks. Popular activities include chimp tracking in Kyambura Gorge, boat cruises, guided game drives including to view tree climbing lions in the Ishasha sector, night drives and nature walks. Visitors can also go on a lion experience with the Uganda Carnivore Program, with proceeds going toward carnivore conservation. Tourists visiting Queen Elizabeth National Park make a 7 hours 30 minutes drive from Kampala to reach the park. The park is also connected by daily domestic flights from Entebbe International Airport, which land at Mweya Airstrip, Kihihi Airstrip and Kasese Airstrip. Tourist accommodations at the park include a range of lodges and tented camps. See available packages here

SIPI FALLS

Around Sipi Falls, visitors can partake in various activities such as; climbing Mount Elgon, hiking, bird watching, cave expeditions and camping. Hikes around the falls provide views of the Karamoja plains, Lake Kyoga, and the slopes of Mount Elgon. Individuals can organize trips through the Uganda Wildlife Authority or local private operators. The falls are surrounded by caves and footways that allow hiking and visitors to see vast banana and coffee plantations around the waterways and interact with the local communities of the Bagisu and Sabiny People. KIDEPO VALLEY NATIONAL GAMEPARK

The park receives comparatively fewer tourists than Uganda's other national parks. Game viewing is possible by vehicle on dirt roads that crisscross the southern and western parts of the park, other activities include nature walks, Lonyii summit hike, guided night drives and bird watching. A few trunk roads are improved with murram and are passable in all weather. The park's remote location means the drive time for tourists from Kampala is an estimated 10 hours. The park is also connected by domestic flights from Entebbe International Airport, which land at Kidepo Airport. Tourist accommodations at the park include a rest camp run by the Uganda Wildlife Authority and other lodges. See available packages here
